Some points of interest

Candes-Saint-Martin, a place where the Loire and Vienne rivers confluence, the village of Candes-Saint-Martin has naturally developed as a river port. At its peak, in the nineteenth century, one of the most beautiful villages in France on the banks of the Loire. Possibility of a cruise along the Vienne aboard a toue cabanée from Chinon or in Candes to sail on the Loire.

Fontevraud. The Royal Abbey of Notre-Dame de Fontevraud is a former Benedictine-inspired abbey, seat of the Order of Fontevraud, founded in 1101, which houses exhibitions and offers various shows.

Saumur, Saumur is particularly known for its Cavalry School, its castle and its wines. Saumur is a city where there is pleasure to walk. Indeed, many pedestrian areas are set up in the historic center and allow you to discover all the heritage of the city on foot. You can walk in the old quarter of Saumur, but also along the Loire. Also think of the Cadre Noir, its equestrian school and its exceptional shows.

Savonnerie Martin de Candre, Lieu-Dit Mestré, 49590 Fontevraud-l'Abbaye. Since 1974, the Martin de Candre artisanal soap factory has been perpetuating the traditional saponification of "hot mashing". An unforgettable olfactory journey.

Mushroom farm Le Saut Aux Loups, 81 Avenue de la Loire, 49730 Montsoreau.

Chinon and its Castle Royal fortress of Chinon : stronger than a castle.

Château Azay-le-Rideau, which became an icon of the new art of building in the Loire Valley in the sixteenth century, is now considered one of the jewels of the architecture of the first French Renaissance.

Tours, Beautiful, dynamic and lively, the city of Tours is an essential stop on the route of the Loire Valley castles. In its historic quarters with half-timbered houses, the squares Feather duster and Chateaneuf are unmissable meeting places.

Château de Monts sur Guesnes, 1, Allée des Marronniers, 86420 Monts-sur-Guesnes. The Château de Monts sur Guesnes is a lively place that allows an interactive journey through time and tells history in a playful way. It is particularly aimed at families and children.

Futuroscope, 86360 Chasseneuil-du-Poitou. Futuroscope is a French theme park with technological, scientific, anticipatory and fun themes, whose attractions mix sensory approaches and image projections. At Futuroscope, you will succumb to an irresistible magnetic force: your curiosity. 40 attractions and shows for the whole family.

A unique example in France of seventeenth-century urban planning, the town of Richelieu is located at the crossroads of Touraine, Anjou and Poitou. It is a listed site with its Grande Rue, lined with 28 private mansions, its market hall and church, its ramparts, its park housing the remains of the castle... so many invitations to come and discover this jewel of architecture and urban planning.
